INCIDENT:

On March 22, 2012 at approximately 1004 a.m., the Twin Cities Police Department received a report of a mail theft that had just occurred in the Greenbrae hills. The victim observed a black male adult inside the right front passenger seat of an older American car. The subject leaned out from the right front passenger door, open the victim's mail box, which was located next to the street, and took an envelope the victim had placed inside for mail pick up. TCPD officers searched the area and located a vehicle matching the description and conducted a traffic stop at the Bon Air Center.

The victim responded to the scene and positively identified the vehicle and the subject who had leaned out from the car and took his mail. After a search of the vehicle, the driver and passenger were placed under arrest for Conspiracy, Theft and other related charges.

TCPD learned both subjects were involved in similar incidents throughout the bay area and are currently being investigated by TCPD Investigations and the U.S. Postal Service.

Both suspects were arrested and booked at the Marin County Jail on charges of Conspiracy, Theft, Violation of Parole and other related crimes.
